

Powerful Verbs

Rewrite the extract below. Use powerful verbs, adjectives, varied sentence structures and other literary techniques such as similes, metaphors and personification to improve it.

The traveller walked down the dusty road feeling the cool breeze against his face. He looked at the tall mountains ahead with their tops touching the sky. Birds sang in the trees and the smell of pine was in the air. With each step, the traveller heard the leaves underfoot and felt the warmth of the sun on his back. Along the way, he went across clear streams and saw the wildflowers that were all around.

Powerful Verbs

Fill in the table below to show which verbs you have changed and explain what the new verb tells the reader.

old verb	new verb	affect